TRIBUTE TO THE BEATLES FEATURING JESSE KAZEMEK

SPECIALTY & TRIBUTE SHOWS

BIOGRAPHY:

Jesse Kazemek is an award winning singer/multi-instrumentalist having worked with such great artists as Bob Gaudio (From the Four Seasons), Academy Award winner Alan Menken and Len Gary (member of the original QuarryMen; John Lennon's first band).

He first fell in love with the Beatles at just four years old. From there, he learned to play the guitar and is known all over the world for his extensive knowledge of The Beatles' music and ability to literally play every song that has ever been recorded by them. The audience will attempt to "Stump The Beatle", as Jesse plays any Beatle song that they request. All of the original Beatle guitar sounds and vocal harmonies are recreated by Jesse himself with the magic of modern technology.

In Jesse Kazemek's Tribute to The Beatles, Jesse incorporates music, comedy, audience participation and a spectacular multimedia presentation all centered around The Beatles. Every show is guaranteed to be highly energetic, interactive and to have audiences on their feet. With a "surprise appearance" by his wife Colleen; who is also no stranger to the stage, Hi jinx, mayhem and great music create the perfect evening which has been quoted as being "Like Lucy and Desi meets the Beatles". Older audience members will be whisked away to 1964 when the Beatles first played on the Ed Dullivan show, while younger audiences alike, will be introduced to the music of one of the greatest bands of all time.
