MIXTURA

LIVE BANDS – LATIN

BIOGRAPHY

Mixtura Band started out as a local band in Miami, Florida over 25 years ago. Founded by Antonio Succar Sr. and Mimy Succar, the Mixtura Band originally focused on performing Latin music for the Peruvian-American community, and achieved enormous success.

In 2007 Tony Succar took over direction of the Mixtura Band and assembled some of the greatest talent in South Florida to carry on and build upon the Succar family's rich musical legacy. With quality and integrity his foremost motivation, Tony developed an innovative new sound that touches upon a diverse range of music genres and styles, including: salsa, merengue, bachata, jazz, world music, top 40, pop, rock, and much more.

With more than 2,000 shows under our belts, including weddings, corporate parties, salsa congresses, jazz festivals and everything in-between, we're extremely proud of all that we've accomplished as a Band. We don't, however, simply wish to rest on our laurels. No matter where we're performing or who we're performing for, we seek to raise the bar to the next level. The phrase "ordinary performance" isn't in our vocabulary.

We have a range of musicians the band could consist of, which could be from 7-16 musicians. Below are the typical number of musicians booked (Please note we only perform Live, no playback or playing over pre-recorded tracks):

- 7 piece band: For the Latin repertoire a minimum number of 7 musicians is required in order to perform. This will get a crowd up and dancing surely with Salsa, Merengue, and Bachata.
- 9 piece band: This is the minimum number of musicians required for our crossover Latin/American repertoire. This is perfect for an event that wants both american and latin music. Aside from the Latin music, we also perform Rock, Top 40, and Motown. This size was used in the video I uploaded on vimeo where we performed at Clevelander in Miami Beach (here is the link once again: <https://vimeo.com/116516401>)
- 16 piece band: This is our full band which puts on an unforgettable show. This is usually booked at weddings. Please view this video performance of our full sized band at Ted Ex FIU: <https://vimeo.com/80753783>
